You are not far from reforming the world. Heaven and earth will move for someone who impassioned by a need and pours his heart into it. Reformers all have the same characteristics. They: 1. Dream of a better world. 2. Tell the truth. 3. Ask the right questions. 4. Believe the time to act is now. 5. Seek knowledge. 6. Are not afraid of the dark. 7. Take action against injustice. 8. Personify enduring courage. Reformers are just dreamers who make their dreams happen. Author Ryan Cook will encourage you to look at yourself and discover these eight characteristics are already within you. And he shares his insights about how you can become a reformer of your world one person, co-worker, community, church, nation at a time. Editorial Reviews About the Author Ryan Cook is the director of Compassionate Youth Ministries Canada. He is a passionate communicator and teacher to his generation, and has reached into many countries of the world encouraging people to make a positive difference. He longs to see the church impact society. Ryan is married and has three children: Judah, Anna, and Greyson.
