There is considerable mystery surrounding the Baron s talk. Even the influence of the Publication Committee was of little avail in prying definite information as to the mystery surrounding today s big show. Our only suggestion to you is to be there today and see the act first-hand. VISITORS TABLE Members who have visiting Rotarians with them will please sit at a special table so designated by the sign Visiting Rotarians sit here. This enables our Welcoming Committee to pin a rose on each guest. BUTTON, BUTTON, WHO S GOT THE BUTTON? Commencing with today s meeting buttons will henceforth be passed out by four Rotarians. They will endeavor to spot you as you come up and give you the proper button. If they guess you wrong, eat em up. We have just got to know each other, that s all there is to it. When Frank Lyon isn t resting in Maine, he is out fishing in Washington state; at times he tells his fish stories to The Tribunette Committee, of which he is an honored member. Born in Albany, N. Y., but has lived it down; started earning honest coin by sweeping wheat out of cars and selling papers. Years ago, as captain of the Oak Street ball team, gathered hits and glory for the whole neighborhood. Frank is a good name for him; in addition, he is tactful, happy, and friendly--and considering his fish stories,...
