Excerpt: .times of the Gentiles, or period of Gentile domination over Israel, (which I then showed to be the meaning of this phrase in Scripture;) and that the end of the war, or consummation of the indignation, is to be with another crisis of tribulation, of a still more E afflictive character than the former. That which especially concerns us in it is, that this crisis of the Great Tribulation falls more immediately upon the Gentiles; and is the consequence indeed of the breaking up of the moral and social principles among us: though the Jews will be to a certain extent involved in it But let us turn to the prophecy. At the 29 th verse of this chapter of Matthew, our Lord adds: Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. To which Luke makes an important addition, viz. that upon the earth there is to be distress of nations with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring, men s heart s failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth. Those expositors, who consider all that is said of the advent of Christ in this chapter but a figure, allege of this verse, (which indeed is figurative, ) that it is a further description of the destruction...
