Volume XXVI of the Societys Collections came from the press early in April, and should be in the hands of our readers in advance of this number of the Magazine. The volume is the first in the new constitutional series, whose contents are devoted to elucidating the history of our state constitution. Three more volumes will complete the series. One of these has been in the printers hands since November, and may perhaps be expected from the press some time in the autumn. The final editorial touches are now being given the last two volumes. They sjiould go to the printer before June and issue from the press some time next winter. The annual Proceedings of the Society for 1918 came from the press the first week in April. It is a pamphlet of fifty-three pages, devoted to the usual annual report of the Societys operations. Mr. Theodore Blegens archival report, which the printer has had under way since May, 1918, is expected from the press momentarily. Under preparation at the present writing are Miss Kelloggs comprehensive history of early Wisconsin, and Mrs. Levis combined history of the press of Wisconsin and checklist of Wisconsin newspapers. Arrangements have been made for Prof. Martha Edwards of Lake Erie College to spend the summer and autumn in the employ of the Society putting the concluding touches on her study of religious activities among the Indians, which the Society has long looked forward to publishing in its series...
