Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The German War, Its Morals and Ends German Krieg has become the traditional method of German acquisition and aggrandisement. Indeed, krieg in German colloquial speech denotes precisely this. And what does Germany want? She wants to make war and have other nations remain neutral, while she slays and destroys where she will. This is all that Germany asked of Great Britain, of France, of Russia, and of her quondam ally, the kingdom of Italy. Germany has not in good faith advanced one just reason for her waging of war. Her real reason is the prosecution of her premeditated plan to throw Europe into chaos for the purpose of adding to her territorial domains by the wreck and slaughter of her neighbors. This war is an atrocity made in Germany. It lacks even the elements of a fair game with its seditious spies, incendiary bombs, and submarine torpedoes by which Germany has pushed her ubiquitous nose into the affairs and security of other nations until she has made of herself an international offense. Do the Germans think by these means to cower and conquer the nations? Of course they cannot do it. They are only laying up for themselves a store of wrath and contempt that justly or unjustly will be visited upon their children s children, and from which they may only be redeemed by a repudiation of the creed and the craft of those who prepare war and contrive offensive engines of death and devastation. There will be a new mind in Germany by the time the cripples she has made in this war have disappeared from her sight. For the gentle German there...
