L. s word is final and his seership infallible to you. The quality of this supposed seership bears a very close resemblance to a stupid and vulgar hoax. This is clearly shown by Mr. Martyn, who says: - In 1919 I went to America. Young Van Hook was in New York. He talked freely of C. W. L. s immorality and about faking the lives of people (Italics mine.) Mr. Martyn then puts together various pieces of evidence against this man, and tells Mrs. Besant that he finds staring me in the face the conclusions that Leadbeater is a sex pervert, his mania taking a particular form which I have-though only lately-discovered, is a form well known and quite common in the annals of sex criminology. (Italics mine.) This sex criminal, then, is the creature whom Mrs. Besant has accepted for many years as sole intermediary between herself and-the Masters of Wisdom!! One almost hesitates to draw the obvious inference; for this is the man whom she has for years held up to and imposed upon their followers as a model of all the virtues- a saint -a person on the threshold of divinity.
