

Emilys First Visit to the Dentist

By Judi Snyder

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 24 pages. Dimensions: 10.6in. x 8.0in. x 0.3in. Emily is going to the dentist for the first time! She is not quite sure what to expect until she meets Tara the Terrific Tooth Fairy. Tara comes to Emily in a dream and explains each step of a first-time dental checkup. In a magical twist, Tara appears at the office where Emily is having her first visit. This book is a delightful way to prepare children for a dental office visit, enhanced by heartwarming characters and adorable illustrations. It is both informative and amusing to children of all ages. Judi Snyder has been a Registered Dental Hygienist for 26 years, working many in a pediatric practice. She has witnessed first-hand the fear of young children in a dental setting and has long dreamed about a book that would help prepare them, in a fun way, for this experience. She is a mother, loving wife and a volunteer in her community. This is her first foray as an author. Let her take your children for a magical and colorful ride with Emily and Tara the Terrific.
