And God, who knoweth the hearts, gave testimony, giving unto them the Holy Ghost, as well as unto us, and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. God, therefore, has already decided this controversy, by my ministry, whom He specially called thereunto, and by the effects which He caused to accompany it. Then, using words full of force, Pg 148 being, indeed, very like those in which he had answered Ananias and Sapphira, he continues, now, therefore, why tempt you God, to put a yoke upon the necks of the disciples, which neither our fathers, nor we, have been able to bear? But by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ we believe that we shall be saved, in like manner as they also. How full of power are these words, is the comment of S. Chrysostome, 70 he says here what Paul has said at great length in the Epistle to the Romans. And then, speaking of the heads of Paul s doctrine, he adds, the seeds of all this lie in Peter s discourse. This, then, is a decision, and given in no hesitating manner, but with severe censure of those who maintained the opposite, as tempting God, words suitable for him only to use who had authority over all. But how did the council receive them? Though there had been much disputing before, though the keenest feelings had been excited, and the point involved the strongest prepossessions of the Jewish converts, all the multitude held their peace. They acquiesced in Peter s judgment, and now readily heard Barnabas and Paul telling...
